Education Reflection Paper

Write a one page paper reflecting on your education so far. Please include an introduction, body paragraphs, and a conclusion. Here are some questions to consider. However, do not merely write bullet point answers. Use your responses to compose a well-written, five-paragraph essay.

● What is your best memory from school?
● What is your worst memory from school?
● What do you remember from the very first day of school?
● Have you received a good education so far? Why/why not?
● What is the most important thing you have learned?
● Who has been your most influential teacher? Why?
● What have you learned about how to be a good student or a good learner?
● What does it take to be successful in school?
